(V) a single guarantee with the amount exceeding 10% of the latest audited net assets;

(VI) guarantee provided to shareholders, actual controllers and their related parties;

(VII) other guarantees as required in the rules of the exchange and the Articles of Association.

When a guarantee mentioned in Item (IV) in the preceding paragraph is considered and approved at the shareholders' meeting, it shall be passed by at least two-thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders present at the meeting.

The Company shall hold responsible persons liable for any violation of the authority and procedures for approving external guarantees by the shareholders' meeting and the Board as provided in the Articles of Association, and shall refer the matter to judicial authorities in accordance with applicable laws if the violation is serious or involves suspected criminal conduct.

Article 57 Shareholders' general meetings are classified into annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. Annual general meetings shall be convened once a year within six months from the end of the previous fiscal year.

Article 58 In any of the following circumstances, the Company shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two months from the date of the occurrence of the circumstance:

(I) when the number of directors falls short of the number specified in the Company Law or

(III) when shareholders severally or jointly holding at least 10% shares (including preferred shares with restored voting rights, etc., hereinafter the same shall apply) of the Company request in writing to hold such meeting;

(IV) when the Board deems it necessary;

(V) when the Audit Committee proposes to hold such a meeting;

(VI) other circumstances as stipulated in the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Articles of Association.

Article 59 The venue of the shareholders' general meeting of the Company shall be the domicile of the Company.

Shareholders' general meetings shall be held onsite at the venue prepared in advance. The Company shall facilitate the shareholders' participation in the meeting in the form of safe, economical and convenient network or in other forms. Shareholders participating in a shareholders' general meeting by the aforementioned means shall be deemed to have attended such meeting.

Article 60 When holding a shareholders' general meeting, the Company shall engage lawyers to give legal opinions and make an announcement on the following matters:

(I) whether the procedures of convening and holding the meeting comply with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;

(II) whether the qualifications of the attendees and the convener of the meeting are lawful and valid;

(III) whether the voting procedure and results of the meeting are lawful and valid;

(IV) legal opinions on other relevant matters at the request of the Company.

Section 3 Convening of Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 61 Upon approval by a majority of all independent directors, independent directors shall have the right to propose to the Board to hold an extraordinary general meeting. The Board shall, pursuant to relevant laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, give a written reply on whether it agrees to hold such an extraordinary general meeting within 10 days after receipt of the proposal of the independent directors to hold such a meeting.

If the Board agrees to hold the extraordinary general meeting, it shall serve a notice of such meeting within five days after wirepluion, fst4(f)5(eet)a(ent)64(f)3((y)-56(a335 re0he4(r)3(oar)4(d)11(.)-44(f)3(f)3()

If the Board does not agree to hold the extraordinary general meeting or fails to give a written reply within 10 days after receipt of the proposal, it shall be deemed to be unable to perform or fail to perform the duty of convening the extraordinary general meeting, and the Audit Committee may convene and preside over the meeting by itself.

Article 63 Shareholder(s) severally or jointly holding at least 10% shares of the Company shall have the right to request the Board to hold an extraordinary meeting, and shall put forward such request to the Board in writing, stating the subjects to be considered at the meeting. The Board shall, pursuant to relevant laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, give a written reply on whether it agrees to hold such an extraordinary meeting within 10 days after receipt of the written request.

Where the Board agrees to hold the extraordinary meeting, it shall serve a notice of such meeting within five days after the resolution is made by the Board. Any change to the original request set forth in the notice shall be subject to approval by the relevant shareholders.

If the Board does not agree to hold the extraordinary meeting or fails to give a written reply within 10 days after receipt of the request, shareholder(s) severally or jointly holding at least 10% shares of the Company shall be entitled to propose to the Audit Committee to hold an extraordinary general meeting, and shall put forward such request to the Audit Committee in writing.

If the Audit Committee agrees to convene the extraordinary meeting, it shall serve a notice of such meeting within five days after receipt of the said request. In the event of any change to the original proposal set forth in the notice, the consent of relevant shareholder(s) shall be obtained.

If the Audit Committee fails to serve the notice of shareholders' meeting within the prescribed period, it shall be deemed as failing to convene and preside over the shareholders' meeting. The shareholder(s) severally or jointly holding at least 10% shares of the Company for at least 90 consecutive days may convene and preside over the meeting by themselves.

Article 64 Where the Audit Committee or shareholders decide to convene a shareholders' meeting by itself/themselves, it/they shall notify the Board in writing and file with the stock exchange.

Prior to the announcement of the resolution of the shareholders' meeting, the shareholding of shareholders who convene the meeting shall not be less than 10%.

The Audit Committee or the convening shareholders shall, upon issuing a notice of shareholders' meeting and announcing the resolution thereof, submit the relevant documentation to the stock exchange.

Article 65 With regard to the shareholders' general meeting convened by the Audit Committee or shareholders by itself/themselves, the Board and its secretary shall offer cooperation. The Board shall provide a register of shareholders as of the record date.

Article 66 If the Audit Committee or shareholders convene a shareholders' general meeting by itself/themselves, the expenses necessary for the meeting shall be borne by the Company. If the Audit Committee or shareholders convene a shareholders' general meeting by itself/themselves due to the disagreement of the Board, the expenses shall be deducted from the amount payable by the Company to the directors committing dereliction of duty.

Section 4 Proposals and Notice of Shareholders' General Meetings

Article 67 The content of a proposal shall be determined by the shareholders' general meeting, have definite topics and specific resolutions, and shall comply with the relevant provisions of the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 68 Where the Company convenes a shareholders' meeting, the Board, the Audit shall be entitled to attend the shareholders' general meeting and exercise their voting rights according to relevant laws, regulations and the Articles of Association. Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a shareholders' general meeting may the greatest number of voting shares among the conveners shall serve as the chairperson of the meeting.

When the shareholders' general meeting is held and the chairperson of the meeting violates the Articles of Association or the rules of procedure for shareholders' general meetings of the Company which makes it difficult for the shareholders' general meeting to continue, a person may be elected at the shareholders' general meeting to act as the chairperson of the meeting, subject to the approval of a majority of the shareholders having the voting rights who are present at the meeting.

Article 84 The Company shall formulate rules of procedure for shareholders' general meetings defining in details the convening and voting procedure of shareholders' general meetings, covering notification, registration, consideration of proposal, voting, counting of votes, announcement of voting result, formation of resolution, meeting minutes and signing thereof and announcement, and the principle and contents of authorization of the Board on shareholders' general meetings. The rules of procedure for shareholders' general meetings shall be appendix to the Articles of Association and shall be formulated by the Board and approved at the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 85 The Board shall report its work in the preceding year at the shareholders' annual general meeting. Every independent director shall also make his/her work report.

Article 86 Directors and officers shall make explanations in relation to the inquiries and suggestions made by shareholders at shareholders' general meetings.

Article 87 The presider shall, prior to voting, declare the number of attending shareholders and their proxies as well as the total number of their voting shares, and the number of attending shareholders and proxies and the total number of shares carrying voting rights held by them shall be determined based on the meeting's register.

Article 88 Minutes of a shareholders' general meeting shall be kept by the secretary to the Board. The minutes of the meeting shall specify:

(I) time, venue and agenda of the meeting, and the name of the convener;

(II) the names of the presider, and the directors, the president and other officers attending or present at the meeting;

(III) the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, the total number of voting shares they represent and the proportion of these shares to the total number of shares of the Company;

(IV) the consideration process, summaries of speeches and voting result for each proposal;

(V) inquiries or suggestions of the shareholders, and the corresponding responses or explanations;

(VI) the names of the lawyer, counting officer and monitoring officer;

(VII) other contents that shall be recorded in the minutes in accordance with the Articles of Association.

Article 89 The convener shall ensure the minutes of the meeting are true, accurate and complete. The attending directors, secretary to the Board, convener or representative thereof, and presider shall sign the minutes of the meeting. The minutes of the meeting, the signed attendance record of those shareholders on the spot and the power of attorney for attendance by proxy, and the valid information relating to the voting over network or other means shall be maintained together for no less than 10 years.

Article 90 Shareholders may examine photocopies of the minutes of meetings during the Company's office hours without charge. If any shareholder demands from the Company a photocopy of relevant minutes of meetings, the Company shall send such photocopies within seven days after receiving payment of reasonable charges.

Article 91 The convener shall ensure that a shareholders' general meeting is held continuously until final resolutions are arrived at. If the shareholders' general meeting is terminated or fails to reach any resolution due to force majeure or for other special reasons, the convener shall take necessary measures to resume the shareholders' general meeting as soon as possible or directly terminate the shareholders' general meeting and make a responsive announcement. Meanwhile, the convener shall report to the local office of the CSRC where the Company is located and the stock exchange.

Section 6 Voting and Resolutions of Shareholders' General Meetings

Article 92 Resolutions of a shareholders' general meeting shall be divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

Ordinary resolutions shall be passed by votes representing a majority of the voting rights held by shareholders (including proxies thereof) attending the shareholders' general meeting.

Special resolutions shall be passed by votes representing two thirds or more of the voting rights held by shareholders (including proxies thereof) attending the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 93 The following matters shall be approved by ordinary resolutions at a shareholders' general meeting:

- (I) work reports of the Board;
- (II) the profit distribution plan and loss recovery plan proposed by the Board;
- (III) appointment and dismissal of the members of the Board, their remunerations and the method of payment thereof;
- (IV) the Company's balance sheets, income statements and other financial statements;
- (V) the Company's annual reports;
- (VI) other matters than those that should be passed by special resolutions pursuant to laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association.

Article 94 The following matters shall be approved by special resolutions at a shareholders' general meeting:

- (I) increase or decrease of the registered capital by the Company;
- (II) division, spin-off, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;

(IV) When voting on the relative related-party transaction, non-interested shareholders attending the meeting shall vote according to the Articles of Association after the shares with voting right represented by the interested shareholders are deducted;

Article 97 The Company shall, subject to the shareholders' general meetings being legally and validly held, make it convenient for the shareholders to attend the shareholders' general meetings through various means, including using modern information technology to establish an online voting platform.

Article 98

of bad faith (including material dishonesty). The nominator shall also express opinions on the nominee's eligibility in terms of independence and other qualifications required for serving as an independent director. The nominee shall issue a statement confirming such eligibility.

The cumulative voting system shall be adopted for the election of independent directors.

(III) Shareholders who nominate candidates for directors (including independent directors) shall submit the intention of nominating candidates for directors (independent directors) and their resumes to the secretary to the Board of the Company in writing 10 days before the convening of the shareholders' meeting. The candidates for directors (including independent directors) shall conduct a written undertaking (in any form of notice) before the convening of the shareholders' meeting to agree to accept the nomination, and undertake that the information disclosed is true and complete and ensure to earnestly perform the duties of directors upon election. The Board shall be responsible for preparing proposals and submitting them to the shareholders' meeting for the nomination of directors (including independent directors).

(IV) Employee representative directors are elected by the employee representatives assembly, the general employee meeting or other forms of democratic elections of the Company.

When voting on the election of directors, the shareholders' meeting may implement accumulative voting system if there is over one proposed director.

Accumulative voting system referred to in the preceding paragraph means a system whereby each share, at voting to elect directors at a shareholders' meeting, carries the number of voting rights equivalent to the number of the directors to be elected, and a shareholder may concentrate his/her/its voting rights. The Board shall make public to the shareholders the resume and general information of the candidates for directors.

The nomination and election of directors shall adopt the cumulative voting system, the procedures of which shall be as follows:

Each share carries a voting right equivalent to the number of directors to be elected. A shareholder may concentrate the votes to nominate one candidate or separate the votes to nominate a number of candidates. The candidates of directors shall be determined according to the number of votes and the requirements for directors in the Articles of Association.

In the election, each share of the shareholder carries a voting right equivalent to the number

(IV) a person who is a former legal representative of a company or enterprise, which had its business license revoked and was ordered to close down due to a violation of laws and who incurred personal liability, where less than three years have elapsed since the date of the revocation of the business license or the order to close down;

(V) a person who has a substantial amount of debts due and outstanding and is listed as dishonest persons subject to enforcement by the people's court;

(VI) a person under a penalty of prohibited access to the securities market imposed by the CSRC, which penalty is still effective;

(VII) a person who has been publicly determined by the stock exchange to be unfit to serve as a director or officer of a listed company, which determination remains effective;

holding of the general meeting to enable adequate understanding of the candidates by the shareholders before voting;

(III) The director candidates shall undertake in writing before holding of the general meeting that they accept their nomination, warrant the accuracy and completeness of their information and that they will diligently perform their duties as directors upon being elected;

(IV) vote at the general meeting in accordance with its voting procedures.

Article 115 The directors shall comply with the laws, administrative regulations, and the Articles of Association. They shall bear the obligations of fidelity to the Company:

(I) not to exploit his/her official functions and powers to accept bribes or other unlawful income, and not to expropriate the Company's property;

(II) not to misappropriate the Company's funds;

(III) not to open in his/her own name or in another person's name any bank account for the purpose of depositing any of the Company's assets;

(IV) not to operate any business similar to that of the Company for his/her own benefit or for the benefit of any third party in violation of the Articles of Association or without the approval of the shareholders' meeting;

(V) not to enter into any contract or transaction with the Company in violation of the Articles of Association or without the consent of the general meeting;

(VI) not to seek business opportunities accounted to the Company for himself/herself or any other persons by exploiting his/her official functions, except as approved by a resolution of the shareholders' meeting, or where the Company is prohibited from employing such business opportunities by applicable laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association;

(VII) not to accept commissions arising from transactions with the Company and appropriate to himself/herself;

(VIII) not to illegally disclose the Company's confidential information;

(IX) not to abuse his/her related-party relationship with the Company to jeopardize the interests of the Company;

(X) other obligation of fidelity provided by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association.

The proceeds obtained by a director in violation of this Article shall be accounted to the Company; for any loss caused to the Company, he/she shall be liable for compensation.

The provisions of Item (5) of the first paragraph of this Article shall apply to contracts entered into or transactions conducted between the Company and the close relatives of any director or officers, or between the Company and any enterprise directly or indirectly controlled by any director or officers or by their close relatives, or between the Company and any other related person who has an related-party relationship with any director or officer.
